ORDER BELOW EXH.1
(Dated 20/04/2026)

This is an application for seeking legal heir-ship certificate under the Bombay Regulation Act No. VIII, 1827. The applicant no.1 is widow, applicant no.2 & 3 are son and applicant no. 4 is daughter of deceased Tularam Janglu Rangari who expired on 28/01/2013 at Mouza Warud, Tah & Dist. Wardha. So also mother of deceased viz., Ziblabai Janglu Rangari and father viz., Jangalu Rangari of deceased were also expired. Applicants are in need of legal heirship certificate for government and semi government work. Hence, they prayed for issuing legal heir-ship certificate in their favour.

2] Read the contents of the application, affidavit of applicant no.1 Nirmala Tularam rangari has filed at Exh.09 and perused the documents on record.

3] Heard the learned Advocate for the applicants.

4] Public notice and proclamation has been issued. No one has appeared to challenge the contents of application and affidavit at Exh.09 filed by applicants. The Death certificate and Identity Card of deceased Charandas Udhav Devaikar are at Exh.10 and 11 respectively. Aadhaar cards of applicant no.1 to 4 are at Exh.12 to 15 respectively.

5] Despite issuance of paper publication, nobody has turned up before this Court and contested this application. The receipt of paper publication dated 11/10/2025 (Chandrapur Samachar) is at Exh.16. The contents of affidavit at Exh.09 have remained uncontroverted. There is no reason disbelieve the version of applicant no.1 on oath. Therefore, having perused the affidavit and connected documents with meticulous care, I am satisfied that applicant no.1 Nirmala Tularam Rangari, applicant no.2 Sumit Tularam Rangari, applicant no.3 Amit Tularam Rangari and applicant no.4 Sheetal Ajay Shegokar are class-1 legal heirs of deceased Tularam Janglu Rangari. All the procedural requirements are complied with and I find no justifiable reason to reject the application. In the result, I pass the following order.

: O R D E R :
