This petition is coming before me on this day for hearing in the presence of Thiru.A.Azaruddin, Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner and Thiru. K.V.Manoharan, Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and after hearing either side and on perusal of available records, this court passed the following….

ORDER

Petition for Anticipatory bail

The petitioner/Accused has filed this petition under section 482 of BNSS. prays to enlarge her on anticipatory bail for the alleged offences punishable u/s.296(b), 75(1), 79, 351(3) of BNS r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act 2002 in Cr.No.47/2026 of Thanipadi Police Station.

Heard Both sides. Records perused.

The Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner/Accused contended that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged and she have been falsely implicated in this case, the complaint is false, the investigation is almost over, she is having permanent residence and also ready to abide any condition imposed by this court and hence, prayed to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

The Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State submitted that the petitioner/accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, dragged her saree and also threatened with dire consequences and the investigation has not been completed. Hence opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of dispute following previous enmity over the pathway and the nature of case in counter, completion of material portion of investigation, and in the absence of any strong objection, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the result, this Anticipatory Bail Petition is allowed with the following conditions:

1. The Petitioner/Accused is ordered to be enlarged on bail in the event of arrest or on appearance before the Jurisdictional Magistrate, within a period of 15 days from today and on her executing an own bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-each (Rupees Ten Thousands only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Jurisdictional Magistrate.
