Apprehending their arrest in connection with Rafiganj P.S. Case No. 690 of 2024 instituted under Sections 1126(2), 115(2), 3(5), 85 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and section 3/ 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, petitioners have moved before this court for grant of privileges of anticipatory bail. A copy of the anticipatory bail petition has been served upon the ld. P.P. for the State.

The briefly stated prosecution story is that informant is legally wedded wife of Raj Yadav and she was ousted from her matrimonial home due to non-fulfillment of dowry. It is also alleged that petitioners are also involved with her husband in demand of dowry. On 18.11.2024, her husband has assaulted her in which she sustained hand injury.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners that the petitioners is wholly innocent and have committed no offence. They have been falsely implicated in this case. Nothing has been happened as alleged by the informant. As a matter of fact, petitioners are elder brother in-law of informant. Petitioners have no concern with the life of informant and her husband. Informant and her husband both are living in her matrimonial home. Petitioners are having no criminal antecedent. It is therefore prayed that the petitioner be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

On the other hand, learned P.P. for the State opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned P.P. for the State.

As per an FIR, the informant was being tortured by her husband including the petitioners due to non-fulfilment of dowry demand. On dated 18.11.2024, her husband had beaten her in which she sustained hand injury. From perusal of record it appears petitioners are brother of informant's husband. There is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners. It is mentioned at para 24 of the case diary that petitioners are having no criminal antecedent.

Considering the facts that petitioners are the brother of informant's husband and having no criminal antecedent as mentioned at para 24 of the case diary Hence the anticipatory bail petition filed on behalf of the above-named petitioners is hereby allowed. It is directed to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of four weeks from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount by each of petitioners subject to the satisfaction of the learned court below and the conditions as laid down u/s 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.
