Order

08/05/2026

1. Present writ petition has been filed praying for issuance of appropriate directions to respondents to grant petitioner-Institution NOC for conducting an Educational Course.

2. This Court finds that, by way of an interim order passed by this Court, petitioner–Institution was allowed to participate in the counselling process and admit students.

3. It is stated that during the pendency of present writ petition, respondent–Authorities have granted the NOC. Since the relief prayed for in the petition has already been granted, the present writ petition has become infructuous.

4. However, since students have already been admitted pursuant to interim order passed by this Court, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for issuance of appropriate directions to respondent–Authorities for regularization of students already admitted in pursuance of directions of this Court.

5. In support of his contentions, learned counsel for the petitioner relies upon judgment dated 18.09.2025 passed by Coordinate Bench of this Court in S.B. Civil Writ Petition No. 18967/2024 titled Ramayan Shikshan Sansthan* v. State of Rajasthan.

6. Aforesaid factual submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner have not been opposed by learned counsel for the respondents.

7. This Court is of considered opinion that, since principal relief prayed for in present writ petition has already been granted in favour of petitioner, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the present writ petition pending. Therefore, in view of submissions made at bar, present writ petition is decided in following terms:

i. Writ petition, to the extent of prayer regarding grant of NOC, is rendered infructuous.

ii. Respondent – Authorities are directed to regularize admissions of the students who have been admitted in petitioner – Institution pursuant to interim order passed by this Court and shall allot them enrollment numbers and shall also declare their results.

8. With said observations and directions, present writ petition stands disposed of.

9. Stay petition and all other pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
