Order with signature of the Court
Dated 22.04.2025	The surrender-cum-bail petition has been filed on behalf of the accused/petitioner namely Vinay Singh who is taken in judicial custody today, after furnishing the copy of the bail petition to the Public Prosecutor and same has been pressed today. The learned counsel for the accused/petitioner has submitted that the accused/petitioner was on bail and has not misused the bail privilege intentionally or deliberately and the bail bond of the petitioner has been cancelled on 17.07.2019 and the Advocate Clerk was directed to take proper pairvi. But the Advocate Clerk did not take proper pairvi, therefore, the bail bonds of the accused/petitioner. This is the first mistake which is not deliberate and petitioner undertakes to be remain present in the Court on each and every date as per order of the Court. He has prayed to allow him on solvent sureties and has prayed to extend the privileges of bail to the petitioner. At the other hand, the learned Special Public Prosecutor has opposed the prayer for bail and has prayed to reject it. After giving due attention to the averments of the both sides, it appears from the record that it is a case of first misuse as it is notice-worthy that on the day of such misuse dated 17.07.2019, there was no proper pairvi, as such, the bail bonds of the accused/petitioner was cancelled. The learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the accused/petitioner has not deliberately misuse the privileges of bail and the mistake on the part of the learned advocate has occurred such appears to be considerable as a warning note that such incident may not occur in future. Therefore, the bail of accused/petitioner is provisionally allowed, as a warning chance, the accused/petitioner is to be released on furnishing bail bonds of worth Rs. 10,000/- (Fifteen Thousand) with one surety of like amount each with further condition that the accused/petitioner will be present in person on each and every till disposal.
