.. …For the OP No. 2

1. This is an application filed for reviving and/or granting fresh interim order dated 5th November, 2024 whereby there was an order of stay of the impugned order dated 2nd of August, 2024 whereby a bailable warrant was issued against the present petitioner during the pendency of the petition filed under Section 205 of Cr. P.C.
2. That the interim order was extended from time to time and lastly extended on 15th of July, 2025. It was extended till one week after Puja vacation, 2025.
3. Application has been filed on 16th of February, 2026. There has been a delay of 3 months and as a result, the prayer has been made for granting fresh interim order.
4. Learned advocate representing the opposite party raised strong objection.
5. At the same time, it can be said that a number of litigations pending between the parties and there are elements of settlement between them. As a result, this Court of the view that the matter be sent before the Hon'ble Mediation

Committee for appropriate steps. The date is fixed before the learned Trial Court in the month of April, 2026 for execution of bailable warrant.

6. Therefore, since the matter is referred to the Mediation Committee and unless the final opinion comes from the learned Magistrate, it is expected that on the date fixed before the learned Court no adverse order would be passed against the petitioner.
7. Matter is returnable after four weeks for final hearing of the CRAN application before the appropriate Bench.
