Apprehending his arrest in connection with Rafiganj P.S. Case No.56/2026 instituted for the offence u/s 132, 221, 224, 351(2) of Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, petitioner has moved before this court for grant of privileges of anticipatory bail. A copy of the anticipatory bail petition has been served upon the ld. P.P. for the State.

The brief facts of the prosecution is that on 14.02.2026 at about 11:40 hours, a general meeting of Panchayat Samitee was convened. The Officer concerned was present and was waiting for completion of corum. In the meantime, at about 12:00PM, petitioner (who is husband of Zainab Fahmi, a member of panchayat Samittee), unofficially entered into the meeting hall, misbehaved with the informant, hampered the public work and threatened for dire consequences.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is quite innocent. Petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He further stated that petitioner did not make any hindrance in discharging of official duty nor applied any force against any of the public servant. Petitioner is having no criminal antecedent. It is therefore prayed that the petitioner be enlarged on anticipatory bail.

On the other hand, learned P.P. for the State opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned P.P. for the State.

There is an allegation that the petitioner, during the course of a Panchayat Samiti meeting, unofficially entered into the meeting hall, misbehaved, and also attempted to snatch the register from the concerned officer. From perusal of record it appears that there is no serious allegation of violence or injury against the petitioner. It is further mentioned at paragraph 3 of the anticipatory bail petition that the petitioner is having no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the anticipatory bail petition filed on behalf of the above-named petitioner, is hereby allowed. It is directed to release the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of four weeks from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount by each subject to the satisfaction of the learned court below and the conditions as laid down u/s 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.
