PW 1 partly cross-examined. At this stage, it is necessary to observe that on each and every date of hearing this court is facing a lot of problem for recording of evidence because defendant is cross-examining the witness himself and does not know the legal technicalities and procedure of cross-examination, qua which detailed order dated 22.10.2021 was passed vide which legal assistance was sought from Ld. Secretary DLSA Rupnagar. Today, defendant has informed that Sh. Amandeep Singh Baghri Advocate, has been appointed as his counsel, who has been telephonically contacted in the court and has been informed to prepare the case thoroughly. He has assured that he will conduct the cross-examination after thorough study on the next date. Further, this court feels that instant case needs special attention and a day which is not busy and therefore, this court has decided to take up the matter on working Saturdays because on the said date, the cases are not being fixed due to work from home and counsels are also free. Therefore, this case will be 20.11.2021 for cross-examination of PW 1 through physical hearing in the court, which is not restricted by Hon'ble High Court.

Further, an application for re-examining of PW 3 Shri Raghbir Chand Jr. Assistant District Consumer Commission witnesss U/s 138 evidence Act filed. Copy supplied. Now to come up on 20.11.2021 for filing reply on the aforementioned application.
