The Ld. Counsel appearing on behalf of accused/petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not filed any bail either anticipatory bail or regular bail before this court or any higher court. It is contended that the petitioners are innocent, have committed no offence, and have been falsely implicated in this case due to village politics. It is further submitted that in the whole case diary there is no legal and cogent evidence against these petitioners. All sections are bailable except section 109(1) of B.N.S. Learned counsel also submitted that a compromise has already taken place between both parties, and a compromise petition duly signed by them has been brought on record. It is pointed out that the petitioners have no criminal antecedents and are willing to abide by any condition imposed by the Court, and therefore they deserve to be released on bail.

Per contra, learned P.P. I/C appearing for the State opposed the prayer for bail.

Heard learned counsel for the parties, and perused the case diary. As per the FIR, the allegation against the petitioners is that they assaulted the informant and his family members, causing injuries to them. From perusal of record, and injury report of informant and injured person attached with case diary, it appears that they got simple injuries. Both the parties have compromised the case and injured was present at the time of hearing of bail application and admitted the factum of compromise, compromise petition is also on record. Moreover, from paragraph 3 of the bail application, it is evident that the petitioners have no criminal antecedents.
