

IN THE COURT OF PRINCIPAL JUDGE, FAMILY COURT, BHAGALPUR.
MATRIMONIAL EXECUTION CASE 01/2026

Rajesh Kumar

Vs

Madhu Thakur

Order dated 13-04-2026

Present: Petitioner is present in person along with his learned counsel.

Matter is taken up today on the date fixed for admission.

The present execution petition has been filed by the petitioner submitting that his matrimonial case was dismissed for default in the year 2024 with a prayer to restore the said Matrimonial Case No 190/19 to its original number.

However, after some argument the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that she would like to withdraw the present execution petition as she has wrongly filed the case as execution petition. Further, she prays that she may be permitted to file afresh in the proper form. She further prays that the certified copy filed along with present petition be returned.

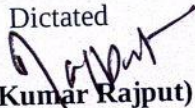

The learned counsel for the petitioner also endorsed on the right side of record that she wants to withdraw the present case.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner. It appears that the petitioner wants to withdraw the present matrimonial, as such it would not be appropriate to continue with the present case and the same is hereby Dismissed as withdrawn. The petitioner is at liberty to file afresh if he wants subjected to the provisions of the Limitation Act.

Further, the certified copy filed along with the present execution petition be returned back on replacing the same with the photo copy.

File be consigned to record room after taking all requisite steps. Petition pending, if any, in the present petition be deemed to be disposed off.
