	21.05.2026	1. This application for anticipatory bail u/s 482 B.N.S.S. filed on behalf of the above named petitioners, who apprehend their arrest in connection with Amdanda P.S. Case No. 106/2024 for the offence punishable u/s 126(2), 115(2), 329(4), 110, 117(2), 303(2), 352, 351(2), 3(5) B.N.S. 2. Petitioners have given certificate in para 2 of the bail application that earlier no application for regular or anticipatory bail has been filed either before the Sessions Court, Bhagalpur or before the Hon'ble High Court, Patna. Petitioners have also stated in para 3 of the bail petition that they have no criminal antecedent. 3. Heard, the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned A.P.P. for the State. 4. Brief facts of the case is that the informant Rajesh Paswan has filed FIR alleging that on 27.10.2024, after having dinner, he was going to sleep, when suddenly at 9:30 o'clock in the night, Kamleshwari Paswan, Pinki Devi, Gaurav Kumar, Saurav Paswan, Bindeshwari Paswan, Neha Kumari, Dinesh Paswan, Reena Devi, Veena Devi and Rupa Kumari entered his home with Lathi, Danda and rod and started abusing and beating, due to which he and his family members got seriously injured. When he started shouting, nearby people came and by then Gaurav Kumar took out a knife and hit on his head, due to which he fell unconscious and Saurav Kumar snatched away silver chain from his mother's neck and all of them threatened to kill his entire family, if any case is lodged.

not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case. It was further argued that a cross case vide Complaint Case No. 57/25 is also filed by petitioner No. 1 against the informant. It was further argued that petitioners has been given privilege u/s 35(3) B.N.S.S. during investigation by the I.O. It was further argued that except section 110 B.N.S. other sections are bailable. It was further argued that allegations against the petitioners are general in nature, hence, petitioners deserve anticipatory bail.

6. On the other hand, the Ld. A.P.P. has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

7. From perusal of case record, it appears that petitioners had not been arrested during investigation and had been given privilege u/s 35(3) B.N.S.S. by the I.O. In para 17 of the case diary, the injuries are reported to be simple in nature. As per para 13 of the case diary, petitioners does not have any criminal antecedent. The petitioners are further ready to abide by all the terms and conditions as may be imposed for grant of anticipatory bail.

8. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners is hereby allowed.

It is ordered that in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned court within four weeks of the date of the receipt of the copy of this order, petitioners are directed to be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of the value of Rs. 10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court and subject to condition as laid down under Sub-Clause (2) of Section 438 of the Criminal Procedure of Code.

9. Any observation made herein above is not an opinion on the merits and the same is only for the purpose of instant bail petition.
