

In the Court of Civil Judge (Sr. Div.)-I, Kahalgaon, Bhagalpur
Present- (Akhilesh Kumar)

Title Suit No. 26 of 2016

Yogendra Pandit & Others.....Plaintiffs

Versus

Mahendra Pandit.....Defendant

ORDER

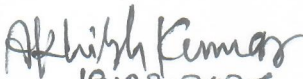

Dated: 19-03-2026

Attendance on behalf of plaintiffs and defendant have been filed through their Ld. Counsel. A petition U/O XXIII read with Section 151 of The Code of Civil Procedure dully supported with affidavit has been filed on behalf of plaintiffs to withdraw the suit. Copy of the same has been served to Ld. Counsel for the defendants. Case called out. On call, both sides have appeared before the court. It has been submitted on behalf of plaintiffs that, this is a suit for partition and both sides have settled the matter amicably outside from the court. Now there is no dispute among the parties. Therefore, the plaintiffs want to withdraw their suit. Ld. Counsel for the defendant has submitted that, he has no objection on withdraw petition.

Under the above facts and circumstances, when the matter has been amicably settled among the parties, it is just and reasonable to allow the petition filed by plaintiffs to withdraw this suit. Accordingly the petition filed by the plaintiffs today to withdraw their suit is hereby allowed U/O XXIII Rule 1 of The Code of Civil Procedure. This suit is dismissed as withdrawn and accordingly disposed off.

O.C. is directed to consign the record in record room as per prevailing rules.

Dictated

19.03.2026

(Akhilesh Kumar)

Civil Judge(Sr. Div.)-I,
Kahalgaon, Bhagalpur