Title Suit No. 270 of 2024

Najo Mandal & Others.....Plaintiffs

Versus

Yogesh Mandal.....Defendant

Order

Dated: 16-05-2026

Attendance on behalf of plaintiffs have been filed through their Ld. Counsel. Case called out. No one turned up on call and repeated call. Case record has been produced. Perused the record. It appears from perusal of record that, this suit is pending for filing of original documents on behalf of plaintiffs. It appears from perusal of record that, the report of siristedar has been submitted on 07-10-2024 and the plaintiffs have filed required court fee after 5 dates despite clear direction to them to file required court fees. After filing of court fees on 08-08-2025 the plaintiffs have not filed required original documents and also they did not appeared to explain that why they could not able to comply the courts order and causing delay. This case is of year 2024 and not admitted yet. It appears that, the plaintiffs have no interest to proceed further in this case.

Under the above facts and circumstances, having no option and no reason to kept this case pending further, I am of opinion that this case should be dismissed for default on account of plaintiff by causing delay on every stage and non filing of original documents before the court at the stage of admission. This suit is accordingly dismissed for default and disposed off.

O.C. is directed to consign the record in record room as per prevailing rules.
