I have heard the rival submissions of both parties, perused the case record, It appears from para-20 of case diary that no grievous injury was found on vital part of the body, injury was found simple in nature, since petitioner is in judicial custody on 29.01.2026 and after completion of investigation charge-sheet has been filed. There is no chance of influencing witnesses and tampering with the evidence. In addition to that petitioner is permanent resident of District-Bhojpur and undertakes to comply any condition imposed by this Court. 7. Considering the facts and circumstances discussed above and period of custody bail petition of petitioner Kallu Thakur @ Bishwas Kumar Thakur is allowed and he is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail-bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below with condition that petitioner shall not commit an offence similar to the offence of which he is accused,
