Contd. 09.04.2026	that on 27.01.2026 at about 9:30 A.M. informant had gone to his brother field for bringing grass for his cattle at the meantime petitioner along with other co-accused came there and started abusing upon objection by informant they started assaulting with lathi, danda and iron rod to informant, as a result he got injured and became unconscious. 4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that no bail either regular or anticipatory bail has been filed either in this Court or Hon'ble High Court on behalf of petitioners. Ld. Counsel for the petitioner further submitted that all accused persons are co-villager of informant in which several persons arrayed as an accused, there is also a counter case lodged by petitioner vide Sahar P.S. Case No. 24/2026 and 27/2026. Petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case, they undertake to comply with any condition imposed by this Court, hence, bail petition of petitioners may be allowed. 5. On the contrary Learned P.P. vehemently

Contd. 09.04.2026	opposed the bail petition of petitioners and submitted that it is mentioned in injury report of para-51 of the case diary that informant received grievous injury, hence, bail petition of petitioners are devoid of merit and same should be dismissed. 6. I have heard rival submissions of both sides and perused the case record. From perusal of record, it appears that all accused persons are co-villager of informant/injured in which several persons arrayed as an accused other than Rohit Kumar Rohit Singh @ Rohit Kumar Singh no allegation made against any of the accused persons. There is specific allegation made against petitioner Rohit Singh @ Rohit Kumar Singh which is corroborated by the injury report that he caused grievous injury to the informant Paras Yadav whose aged about 60 years, that injury was found grievous and injury corroborated the case of the prosecution in toto. Considering the fact that petitioner Rohit Singh @ Rohit Kumar Singh is 27 years old and brutally assaulted informant Paras Yadav who is a senior citizen aged about 60
