Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that petitioner has never applied for regular or anticipatory bail earlier in this Ld. Court or in the Hon'ble High Court Patna and no bail petition of the petitioner is pending in any Court. It has further been submitted that petitioner is innocent, has committed no offence and has been falsely implicated in this case. It has further been submitted that there is case and counter case between both the parties, hence, anticipatory bail petition of petitioner may be allowed. 5. On the contrary, Learned P.P. vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner and submitted that petitioner is also indulge in the alleged occurrence and this case is still at initial stage and investigation is pending, hence, anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner is devoid of merit and same should be dismissed. 6. I have heard rival submission of both the parties and perused the case record. All accused persons are from same family and allegation made against all the accused

Scan of Jira Devi and Samundra Devi is on record and same is conducted by Kalpana C.T Scan Centre, Ara and as per this C.T Scan no significant abnormality in the present scan and some swelling was seen in the soft tissue of frontal bone of Samundra Devi and Jira Devi aged about 50 years and 30 years respectively. Though as per written complaint informant has not disclosed the name of Jira Devi or Samundra Devi as an injured. Petitioner Radheshyam Singh is son of co-accused Navratan Singh. In this case accused person is co-villager and staying in same neighbourhood all family members of petitioner has been arrayed as an accused. It appears that unsubstantiated and bald allegation made against accused person two C.T Scan of women namely Jira Devi and Samundra Devi was filed but as per Fardbayan Runi Devi and Geeta Devi is injured persons not injured Jira Devi and Samundra Devi. Hence, it appears that exaggerated and bald allegation has been made against all accused persons. 7. Considering the facts and circumstances discussed above, hence, anticipatory bail
