below. Further it has been submitted that the accused petitioners have not deliberately and knowingly misused the privilege of the bail order. The Ld. Counsel for the petitioner prays to grant extension of the period so that the petitioner may surrender before the Ld. lower court and furnish his bail bonds.

The Ld. P.P opposes the prayer of the petitioner and submitted that the petitioner is taking the court's order very lightly and he want to obey the court's order as per his sweet will. So this petition be rejected.

Having heard the submission of both the parties and on perusal of the bail order it appears that the accused petitioner was allowed anticipatory bail on 06.06.2023 and he was directed to surrender before the Ld. lower court within a period of 25 days. So, in the interest of justice two weeks more from the date of order are extended for surrendering and furnishing his bail bonds before the court below.

In the result this miscellaneous petition stands allowed.
