	04-05-2026 The present petition for anticipatory bail has been filed on behalf of accused/petitioner namely Dhananjay Singh apprehending his arrest in connection with the present case. The case of the prosecution, in brief is that the informant Priyanka Kumari gave a written application to the officer in-charge of Aayar Police Station stating that on 18.09.2025, she was selling goods sitting at a Gumti in front of her house. Dhananjay Singh who is her co-villager and her neighbour came to her Gumti about 03:00 P.M. and demanded goods from her. When she demanded money for the goods sold by her, he did not give her money rather dragging her by holding her fair threw her down the Gumti and abused her. Dhananjay Singh also tore her Salwar, Kamiz and indecently touched her person. Dhananjay Singh also assaulted her with danda due to which her hand got fractured and she started crying due to pain. Then the nearby persons gathered and her life could be saved. Thereafter Dhananjay Singh fled away, abusing and threatening to kill and dishonor her family members. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case due to ulterior motive. Allegation against the petitioner is totally false, baseless and concocted one. The present case has been compromised between both the parties and a compromise petition is ready being filed along with this bail petition. The petitioner has one criminal antecedent. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor has opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail. Arguments heard and record perused. From the perusal of the record, it transpires that the allegation against the petitioner is that owing to some money dispute, petitioner tore the cloths of the informant, touched her inappropriately, abused her and assaulted her with danda due to which she sustained injury. The witnesses have supported the prosecution case in para no. 7 and 8 of the
