09.03.2026	Plaintiff is on attendance. Defendants are also absent. The record is for appearance of defendants. The matter is called out. Neither the Plaintiff(s) nor their Learned Counsel appeared. The record reflects that the case was fixed for compliance of previous order 22.10.24. Despite repeated directions given by this Court to the Plaintiff(s) to do proper pairvi (Plaintiff) and remain present and comply previous order, neither the Plaintiff(s) nor their Counsel appeared today. Upon perusal of the record, it is evident that the case was fixed appearance of defendant and compliance of previous order dt. 22.10.24 Despite repeated directions given by this Court to the Plaintiff(s) to do proper pairvi (prosecution) and remain present and comply previous order, neither the Plaintiff(s) nor their Counsel appeared today. The Court had previously granted a last chance to the Plaintiff(s) to proceed with the matter by complying previous order, but they have failed to appear and proceed further. Furthermore, it is noted that the Plaintiffs ceased proper pairvi of the case in between. As the Plaintiff is the master of the case, the onus lies upon them to proceed with the case and ensure the necessary steps for the litigation's advancement are taken. Under these circumstances, the Court is led to conclude that the Plaintiff is having no interest in pursuing the instant case and has failed to prosecute the suit with due diligence. In light of the Plaintiffs' persistent default in appearance and failure to prosecute the suit, the instant case is hereby DISMISSED IN DEFAULT for non-prosecution. Office Clerk is directed to deposit the record in the record room within stipulated period as per law.
