Title Suit No. 44 of 2026

Dated		Remark
10-06-2026	ORDER Case record has been placed before me for order after hearing the learned counsel on behalf of plaintiff over the petition dated 10/06/2026 filed Under Order XXIII Rule 1 and Section 151 of C.P.C, supported with an affidavit with a prayer for an order for withdrawal of this suit. Heard the submissions placed forward on behalf of the plaintiff. It has been prayed by the learned counsel that the plaintiff has received the remaining amount of Rs. 2,00,000/- from the defendant. The plaintiff does not want to contest the suit. Therefore, prayer is made to withdraw the present suit. Perused the case-record, from perusal of the record, it transpires that the instant suit has been filed by the plaintiff namely Alakh Narayan Rai against sole defendant with a prayer inter alia to order the defendant to take the remaining amount and execute the sale deed in relation to schedule ka land of the plaint in the name of plaintiff. After admitting this suit, the suit was proceeded and case was fixed at the stage of filing requisites for issuance of summon upon the defendant; meanwhile, the petition for withdrawal was filed. Now, the plaintiff by filing this instant petition, that the plaintiff has received the remaining amount from the defendant therefore, it has become necessary to withdraw the present suit. So, he intends to withdraw this suit. The suit has been filed by the plaintiff and now it is up to the plaintiff, whether he wants to continue with the suit or withdraw it. In the light of petition, the plaintiff was examined in court and has deposed that he wants to withdraw the present suit and stated to have “no objection” if the suit is dismissed as withdrawn. So, in the facts and circumstances of the case, the plaintiff is permitted to withdraw this suit. Thus the suit is hereby dismissed as withdrawn. The office clerk is directed to consign the case record in the record room as per rule within stipulated time.
