In The Court of Sub-Judge II, Piro

Title Suit no. - 46/2017

Order

10-01-2024 : There is attendance of the plaintiff and defendant through their Ld. Counsel. Case is pending for hearing on petition dt. 09-08-2023 and its rejoinder dt. 23-09-2023.

On call Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff appeared and moved his petition dated 09-08-2023 filed under Order 39 Rule 1 and 2 u/s 151 of the C.P.C. Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff submit that the plaintiff has filled the suit for partiton. The defendant are negotiating for sale of the disputed property. The defendant wants to further sale the property. The plaintiff will suffer irriprable loss. Prima-facie case and balance of convenience is in favour the plaintiff. So temporary injunction to restrain the defendant from sale of the disputed property is necessary.

Ld. Counsel for the defendant opposed the petition and submit that the plaintiff has not stated Khata and plot no. Of the land on which injuction has been sought. Prima facie case and balance of convenience is not in favour of the plaintiff. The entire statement of the plaintiff is baseless and fabricated. The plaintiff has filled the petition only who linger the case.

Heard and perused the record. After perusal of the same this court finds that the suit has been filled for partition. The plaintiff has filled copy of the sale deed dt. 15-01-2022 and copy of the agreement for sale dt. 19-03-2022 executed by defendant.

In such circumstances this court finds that prima-facie case and balance of convenience in favour of the plaintiff. The plaintiff would have to suffer irreparable loss. The injunction is also necessary in the interest of justice to restrain the multiplicity of the suit and to avoid the multiple petition and unnecessary delay in disposal of the suit. Therefore, petition dt. 09-08-2023 filled under Order 39 rule 1,2 and 3 u/s 151 of the C.P.C. is ordered to be allowed to restrain the defendant only from further sale of the disputed proeprty.

Put up on.....for further hearing.
