

IN THE COURT OF METROPOLITAN MAGISTRATE
58th COURT, BANDRA, MUMBAI

CC No 1421 / SS / 2018

Jayesh Hasmukh Shah --- Complainant
V/S

M/S Siddhivinayak Enterprises --- Accused

EXEMPTION.
ADJOURNMENT APPLICATION

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR:

The respectful Submission on behalf of accused as under.

1) That SLP before Honorable Supreme Court is disposed off, when the the advocate mentioned difficulty for non-appearance of accused today i.e 24/4/2024, the Honorable Appen Court orally opened and observe that accused shall make necessary application before trial Court, for her non-appearance and same may be consider.

2) That today accused is in personal difficulty due to her frequent / irregular menstrual cycle which may lead to monofous, due to said reason, it is very difficult for her to step out of the home due to heavy flow.

3) That the accused undertake that on next date she will remain present and further undertake to record her plea by obtaining bail from this Honorable Court.

4) The reasons mentioned herein are bonafide and thus the accused is seeking one last chance before this Honorable Court.

It is thus Prayed that this Honorable Court may be pleased to grant one last exemption to accused in the interest of Justice.

Mumbai
Dated. 24/4/2024

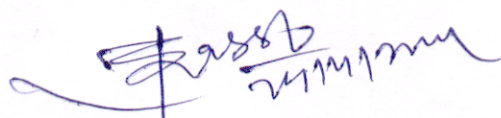

Adv. for Accused.

○

Read. Heard both sides.

Sufficient opportunity granted till date under pretext of exhausting legal remedies by the accused. Reason do not appears bonafide. Hence, application rejected.

M.M. 58th Court
Bandra, Mumbai