offence u/s 109 of BNS which is not attracting against the petitioners. He further submits that both the parties have amicably settled their disputes and a compromise petition has also been filed with this petition. The petitioners are law abiding citizens and they are ready to abide by all the conditions as imposed by the court. Therefore the present petition may be allowed.

On the other hand, Ld. Addl. P.P appearing on behalf of the State though opposed the prayer for bail but admitted the factum of compromise.

Upon considering the rival submissions and on perusal of the materials available on record this court finds that the both the parties have amicably settled their dispute and the informant/victim has no objection if the bail petition of petitioners is allowed. Further the petitioners are ladies and there is no specific allegation of assault has been alleged against them. The allegations leveled them are general and omnibus in nature. Therefore considering the submissions made at bar as well as other facts and circumstances of the case no useful purpose would be served if the petitioners are sent to judicial custody. Under the circumstances the prayer for anticipatory bail of the abovenamed petitioners is allowed. The petitioners are directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each in the event of their arrest by police or surrender before Ld. Court below in connection with Biraoul PS case No. 466/25 to the satisfaction of learned Court below subject to condition laid down u/s 482(2) of BNSS.
