ORDER

01-07-26

1. Case called out. No one appeared on behalf of the petitioner despite repeated calls, nor any explanation has been furnished for the absence of the petitioner or their Ld. Counsel. However, earlier too various opportunities have been provided to them to pursue their bail application. It appears that either the petitioners have lost their interest in the present case or have been granted bail by the Investigating Officer.

2. Considering the facts and circumstances discussed above, the present anticipatory bail petition is hereby dismissed for its non-prosecution.

3. Let, this order be sent to the concern court as well as be uploaded on District court's websites and file be consigned to the record room after return of documents/materials submitted; if any; to the parties as per provisions.
