ORDER

Date : 02/06/2026

This bail petition has been pressed today for hearing on behalf of the petitioner namely Navalesh Kumar who is in custody since 07.04.2026 in connection with this Khizarsari, P.S. Case No. 182/2025 registered under Sections 191(2), 190, 126(2), 115(2), 117(2), 109, 303(2), 352, 351(2), 351(3) of B.N.S.

Heard learned counsel Sri Rajnish Kumar Singh appearing on behalf of the accused/Petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

Apart of pleading innocence and false implication Ld. Counsel for the petitioner submits that allegation against petitioner is with respect to inflicting injury with Garasa on the head of the victim but soft tissue swelling has been found and the nature of injury has been opined to be simple.

The Ld. Counsel further submits that petitioner is in custody since 07.04.2026.

The Ld. Counsel further submits there is case and counter case of the alleged version and injuries allegedly inflicted and sustained were not premeditated ones and section 307 and 109 of BNS is not attracted.

In a light said submissions Ld. Counsel for the petitioner prays for enlarging the petitioner on bail.

In the Court of District & Addl. Sessions Judge – III, Gaya

B.P. No. 716/2026(S.J)

The Ld. P.P as well as Ld. Counsel for the informant has opposed the prayer of bail.

In the instant case injury report of the first treating doctor was called for but despite giving adequate opportunity the same has not been produced. It was called for to ascertain that which kind of injury was actually found at first instance and during course of investigation the final injury report has been received wherein nature of injury has been opined to be simple. There is no allegation of causing repeated blow as such. There has been case and counter case of the alleged version.

Accordingly, petitioner is allowed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each.
