B.P. No. 1038/2026

Bashanti Devi Vs. The State of Bihar

Paraiya P.S Case No.114/2026

03.06.2026

Present:-

For the petitioner :- Sri Piyush Kumar, Advocate

For the State -----:- Sri S.B. Ojha, Public Prosecutor.

The present petition for regular bail has been filed on behalf of the petitioner Bashanti Devi who is in judicial custody since 20.04.2026 in connection with Paraiya P. S. Case No.114/2026 registered for the offences punishable U/ss 191(2), 191(3), 190, 126(2), 109, 352, 351(2), 132, 127(2), 324(4) of the BNS.

Prosecution case, in brief, as per typed report of the informant Sunita Kumari, SHO of the Paraiya Police Station is that on 18.04.2026 at about 18:10 Hrs., during course of vehicle checking, she got secret information that illegal mining of sand is being done in Morhar river situated at village-Baikatpur. On this information, the informant along with police officials reached at village-Baikatpur. Upon seeing the police party, the tractor driver carrying sand started fleeing away while unloading the tractor and ultimately, he left the tractor and succeeded to flee away. It is further alleged that a large number of villagers gathered and surrounded the police team and thereafter they started abusing and brick batting upon the police team causing injuries to police personnel and driver and also damaged the government vehicle and get released the tractor from the police party. It is further alleged that the accused/petitioner and other accused persons were arrested on the spot and some persons were identified later.

Ld. counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case due to dirty village politics. He further submits that the petitioner is lady and the allegation levelled against her are general and omnibus in nature. He further submits that there is no reference of any medical treatment in the FIR. He further submits that co-accused person namely Manju Devi has been granted bail vide order dated 20.05.2026 passed in BP No.860/2026 and the case of this petitioner stands on similar footing.

He further submits that the petitioner having no criminal antecedent is lying in judicial custody since 20.04.2026.

Ld. P. P. has also been heard in opposition.

I have perused the case record as well as case diary. The petitioner is named in the FIR with allegation that she along with other accused persons obstructed the police party from discharging their official duty. There is no allegation of any overt act against this petitioner rather the allegation levelled against her is general and omnibus in nature. Upon perusal of case diary, more specifically as per para-26 of the case diary, the petitioner carries no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid submissions, the prayer for bail of this petitioner is hereby allowed. The petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- with two sureties of the like each to the satisfaction of the Id. court concerned.
