2. Heard the parties and perused the record.
3. Ld. Counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are quite innocent and have committed no offence rather than they have been falsely implicated in this false case. He further submits that no bail application of the petitioners either regular or anticipatory has been filed or pending either before your hon'ble court or before any other superior court. He further submits that there is no criminal antecedent against them. He further submits that the allegations levelled against the petitioners are baseless, unfounded and beyond the facts. He further submits that the informant has filed this false case by informing the police of her opinion, whereas no such incident has taken place as alleged. He further submits that all sections are bailable in nature except 109 B.N.S which is not made out against the petitioners. He further submits that section 74 has been invoked because the informant is a woman, and section 303(2) has been invoked to aggravate the matter. Hence, petitioners may kindly be admitted to the privilege of bail.
4. Ld. P.P. for the state opposed the bail prayer of petitioners.

Hospital, the informant's vehicle was intercepted. The informant was forcibly pulled out of the vehicle, assaulted, and thrown to the ground. When the driver (Sahzad Ansari) attempted to intervene, he was allegedly attacked with a knife and sustained injuries to the neck and face, after which he became unconscious. The informant was also assaulted and sustained injuries. During the incident, a ransom of Rs. 47,000/- was allegedly taken from the informant's purse, and the informant's gold chain and mangalsutra were also allegedly snatched. From the perusal of para- 36 of the case diary the injury of Neetu Devi is complain of pain over chest and injury of Sahzad Ansari is simple in nature caused by hard and blunt substance.
