19-05-2026	Order	Remarks
	Anticipatory bail petition filed on behalf of the petitioners 1.) Prince Kumar Yadav who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Gopalganj Mahila, P.S. Case No. 25/2025, registered U/s 69, 70, 126(2), 127(3), 115(2), 351(2), 352, 3(5) of B.N.S. The prosecution story in brief according to the informant namely Nidhi Kumari is that the accused petitioner made a sexual relation with the informant on false pretext of marriage. It is further alleged that his uncles namely Manoj Yadav and Munna Yadav raped her day and night respectively at the house of the petitioner. It is further alleged that Sushila Devi, Vikram Yadav and Majister Yadav brutally assaulted her and ousted her from their house. Hence, the FIR. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner argued that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Learned counsel further argued that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent. With these arguments learned counsel for the petitioner prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Ld. P.P. for the State opposed the bail prayer of the petitioners. Having heard the Id. Counsel for the parties and perused the case diary. On a plain reading of the FIR, the matter appears to arise out of a consensual physical relationship on the pretext of marriage. It further transpires from Jadopur P.S. case no. 49/25 that the victim of the present case had allegedly assaulted the petitioner during a Panchayati convened on 15.05.2025 for resolution of the marriage dispute. If the allegation of sexual exploitation pertains to the year 2021, no plausible explanation has been furnished for such inordinate delay in lodging the FIR. Therefore, it is a fit case to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner is allowed. Let the petitioner in the event of arrest or surrender within four weeks of the instant order before the Court below be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of equal amount with the condition that (i) one of the bailor shall be father or mother.
