Heard, Sri Seikh Asgar learned counsel, on behalf of the petitioner and ld. P.P., Gopalganj for the State.

A petition on behalf of the petitioner/accused above named has been filed stating therein that matter is being conducted by ld. Sr. Advocate of the Hon'ble Supreme Court who is also the Chairman of Bar Council of India as well as Hon'ble Member of Rajya Sabha. Due to sudden deterioration of his health, the ld. Sr. Advocate to appear and assist this Court and extend the interim "no coercive" order granted in favour of the petitioner till the next fixed.

Prosecution side opposed this prayer.

I have gone through the record. It is clear from the record that record is fixed for hearing and order. So in view of the submission made by the petitioner in his petition no coercive order dated 07.05.2026 is hereby extended till next date, let no coercive action shall be taken against the above named petitioner till next date 27.05.2026. Petitioner is directed to co-operate in investigation.
