Today, no any attendance has been filed on behalf of the revisionists. On calls, no one is turned up on behalf of the revisionists to press this Cri. Revision.

It appears that, this Cri. Rev. petition has been filed on behalf of revisionists/O.P No.1 against order dated 14.05.2025 passed by Id. S.D.M., Gopalganj in M. Case No. 983/2025 proceeding U/S 126 B.N.S.S. (corresponding section u/s 107 Cr.P.C.) Gauri Bhagat versus Dhudhnath Bhagat whereby the Id. Trial court issued show-cause to the parties.

Revisionist is absent since long and today, no one is present on behalf of the revisionist.

Heard Id. A.P.P. and Perused the case record.

From perusal of the case record as well as material available on record. It transpires that on the basis of Police Report regarding conflict due to land dispute between both the parties, Id. Trial Court issued show-cause for furnishing bond to maintain peace to the parties. Impugned order itself shows that the order passed by the trial court is interim order moreover, maximum statutory period of this provision has already been expired as impugned order has been passed on 14.05.2025. Nature of the Section 126 B.N.S.S. is only preventive proceeding. It does not decide the title or right or possession of the parties. Moreover, on several dates alongwith today, revisionist was absent and revisionist had been given direction to do proper pairavi and comply the order dated 06.08.2025. But revisionist has not complied the same and today also, on calls revisionist is absent, which shows that the petitioner has lost his interest in this Cri. revision.

Hence, considering the fact and circumstances as discussed above, this revision petition is hereby dismissed as interim.

Office is directed that the revisional file should be consigned to the record room after necessary formalities and send a copy of this order to the court concerned .
