A.B.P. No. 381/2026
Makhdumpur P.S. Case No. 111/2025
Sharda Devi v/s State of Bihar

08.05.2026 –

A application for anticipatory bail has been filed on behalf of accused petitioner, namely, Sharda Devi , who is apprehending her arrest in connection with Makhdumpur P.S. Case No. 111/2025, under Sections 191(2), 126(2), 115(2), 117(2), 109 B.N.S. has been pressed today for hearing.

It has been submitted by the Ld. counsel on behalf of the accused petitioner that the petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence rather she has made an accused with malafide intention and also with a view to pressure tactice. Petitioner carry no criminal antecedent in her credit. Informant has lodged a false case to save her skin from Makhdumpur P.S. Case No. 105/2-25 lodged by petitioner against the informant and others. Petitioner carries no criminal antecedent in her credit. Allegation against the petitioner is general and vague in nature. Further, submitted that petitioner is ready to abide the conditions under Section 482(2) imposed by this Ld. Court and also ready to furnish bail bond of reasonable amount of sureties to satisfaction of the Ld. Court. Accordingly, prayer has been made to enlarge the petitioner on bail .

On the other hand, learned P.P. vehemently opposed the prayer of bail.

Prosecution story, in brief, is that one Srimanti is the informant of the case. She has stated in her fardbeyan that on 16.02.2025 at about 06:30 pm an altercation took place in which Ramji Chaudhary, Sharda Devi, Satyendra Chaudhary, Neelam Devi, Ruchi Kumari equipped with lathi danda , rod assaulted informant and her son Chandan and fractured their head and threatened by using caste slurs word to sent them in jail. She has further stated that her hand broke in the alleged commission of offence. Injured was brought to Makhdumpur Referral hospital for treatment from where for better treatment referred to Sadar Hospital Jehanabad.

Heard and perused the case record. From the perusal of record, it transpires that the FIR regarding the alleged occurrence dated 16.2.2025 was lodged on 19.2.2025 and no reason for the delay has been explained. It also transpires that the allegation of assaulting the informant and her son is composite in nature and no specific allegation of assault is attributed against the petitioner. It is evident that there is case and counter case between the parties for the same occurrence. From the perusal of injury report, it transpires that informant Shrimanti Devi sustained two injuries on her person 1.pain and swelling over left forearm and doctor has found injury no. 1 grievous in nature and 2. lacerated wound on left side temporal region of head size 2"x1/8"x1/8" and doctor has found simple in nature, however, it is not mentioned in the injury report that injury no. 1 is dangerous to life. Petitioner carries no criminal antecedent in her credit which has specifically been mentioned in para no. 3 of the bail petition.

Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case as well as simple nature of injury, I am inclined to enlarge the accused petitioner on bail. Hence, accused petitioner above named is hereby directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 15,000/- (fifteen thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Ld. Trial Court along with further condition that one of the bailors shall be his family member/close relative of the petitioner, who will file an affidavit as to how she/he is related with the petitioner and petitioner shall file undertaking that she will not indulge in similar offence in future.
