Anticipatory Bail Application No. 596 of 2026

Md. Ahmad Vs. State of Bihar

FIR No. 143/2026

P.S. Chautham

u/Ss. 25(1-B)(a), 25(1-A), 25(1-AA), 26(1), 26(2), 35 of Arms Act

Date : 20.06.2026

ORDER

1. Applicant Md. Ahmad has filed aforesaid application u/S. 482 of B.N.S.S. apprehending his arrest.
2. Briefly stated facts of the case as per FIR registered on 06.05.2026 are that the informant who is SHO of P.S. Chautham got recorded self statement stating that on the same very day he got a secret information that a mini gun factory was being run in the house of one Md. Ahmad. On raid four persons were apprehended. One country made pistol, one live cartridge, 3 empty shells and many articles being used in the manufacturing of illegal arms were recovered.
3. Ld. Counsel for applicant has submitted that from perusal of FIR it appears that no case is made out against the accused/petitioner in alleged sections because nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession of the applicant. Applicant has clean antecedent. Ld. Counsel has further submitted that applicant is ready to abide by all conditions imposed by this court if he is enlarged on anticipatory bail.

4. Conversely, Ld. P.P. for State has strongly opposed the bail application.
5. Heard. Perused the bail application and C.D.
6. A mini gun factory was being operated from the house of the applicant. Co-accused has stated that at the instance of applicant and one Md. Ibrahim he had brought the articles from Munger to prepare the arms. Co-accused has also stated that applicant and his wife arrange boarding and food for him. Investigation is still pending. No case for pre-arrest bail is made out.
7. A.B.A No.596 of 2026 is hereby dismissed.
