 2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Denying any such occurrence as alleged was ever taken place, it is submitted on behalf of petitioners that the informant is the wife of Petitioner No. 2 and Petitioner No. 1 is the mother of Petitioner No. 1 and this case is the outcome of matrimonial dispute between informant and her husband i.e. Petitioner No. 1 for which Petitioner No. 1 has filed a case bearing No. 256/2023 seeking relief of judicial separation and thereafter, he has also filed a case seeking divorce from the informant, bearing case no. 02/2026 and due to this reason the informant has lodged this false case with concocted story.
 4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
 5. Heard both the parties and perused the record. It transpires from the the perusal of record that petitioners are FIR named and allegation against them as per FIR that on dated 26.12.2025 in the night, the husband of informant beaten her for dowry demands and an FIR was lodged and when on dated 09.02.2026 she came to court for hearing, her husband threatened her and thereafter, her husband and mother-in-law beaten her when she reached home. 6. Considering the aforesaid fact and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, these petitioners shall be released on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS.
