FIR No: 106/2026
P.S : Chainpur
U/s: 126(2),115(2),109,352,351(2)
3(5) BNS
Date Of Order: 07.04.2026

1. Heard Sri Markandey Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/petitioners and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Alleging false implication of the petitioners, it is submitted on their behalf that both the parties are members of the same family and this case is the outcome of differences cropped up between the parties on the point of getting the cattle grazed, moreover, there is no specific allegation of overt act against the petitioners rather the petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
5. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioners are FIR named and allegation against them as per FIR are that on dated 04.03.2026 at around 07:00 PM, the informant was milking his buffalo at the door of his house. In the meantime, all the FIR named accused including these petitioners came and started abusing the informant and when he objected, co-accused Rajkumar Bind assaulted the informant with khanti and injured him. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that informant and accused persons are members of the same extended family and a dispute was occurred between them regarding grazing of cattle. It is further submitted that allegation of assaulting the informant and injured him is against co-accused Rajkumar Bind and allegation against them are general in nature. Further, a compromise has arrived between the parties with the intervention of well wishers of both sides and a copy of compromise agreement is also filed on record. Petitioners have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 3 of bail petition.
6. Considering the aforesaid fact and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, these petitioners shall be released on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS. (Dictated)
