FIR No: 128/2026
P.S : Chainpur
U/s: 191(2),190,126(2),115(2),109,
303(2),352,351(2)BNS
Date Of Order:16.04.2026

1. Heard Sri Ankit Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/ petitioners and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Alleging false implication of the petitioners, it is submitted on their behalf that no such occurrence as alleged was ever taken place moreover, the sections invoked in this case are allailable except section 109 & 303(2) of BNS whereas the injuries sustained by the injured is simple in nature caused by hard and blunt substance and thus, as submitted from the facts of the case, no case for the offence under section 109 BNS is made out and the allegation of commission of theft is super addition.
 4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioners are FIR named and allegations against them as per FIR are that on dated 17.03.2026 at around 08:30 PM, the informant was returning to his house on a truck from Chainpur and when they reached near Khar-gawa mod, some persons stopped the vehicle raising slogans and the driver of the vehicle fled away from scene the crime but informant was apprehended and these petitioners along with other FIR accused have snatched Rs. 60,000/- from his pocket and started beating him. The injury report of informant is mentioned in para 88 of case diary showing injury is simple in nature, caused by hard and blunt substance. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that informant was driving the aforesaid truck and illegally carrying some cows and oxen and when the truck reached near Khar-gawan mod, some persons caught the driver and save the animal for which case bearing Chainpur PS case no. 126 of 2026 was lodged against the informant. It is further submitted that allegation against these petitioners are general and omnibus, no specific overt act is mentioned against them. It is further submitted that from the nature of accusation as well as injury report, no case under section 109 BNS is made out and allegation of snatching money appears to be super addition. Petitioners are stated to have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 3 of their bail petition.
6. Considering the aforesaid fact and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, these petitioners shall be released on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS. (Dictated)
