BNS & 27 Arms Act

Date Of Order:27.05.2026

1. Heard Sri Atul Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/petitioners and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. The brief facts of the case are that on dated 12.04.2026 at around 09:30 AM, the informant was taking meal at his house and his daughter was walking near the door, in the meantime, accused Golu Kumar and Rajan Kumar came at the door of his house and misbehaved with his daughter and when she raised alarm, the informant went to her rescue, in the meantime, all the FIR named accused including these petitioners and some unknown persons came having lathi, danda, gadasa, bhala in their hands and started beating the informant and his family members and accused Golu Kumar brought out country made weapon from his waist and fired upon informant and injured his left hand and accused Rajan attacked the daughter of informant with knife and injured her. Informant further alleged that accused Ramnayan Singh burnt his tractor by sprinkling petrol.
 4. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that they are innocent, have not committed any offence and have been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that no such incident as alleged was occurred and the uncle of co-accused Rajan Kumar has also filed Chainpur PS Case No. 299/2022 against the informant and others. It is further submitted that no deadly weapon was used as alleged and the informant has not sustained any injury caused by deadly weapon or fire arm. It is, therefore, prayed that the bail petitions of these petitioners may please be allowed.

5. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
6. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioners are FIR named and allegations against them are that they along with other FIR named accused and some unknown persons have assaulted the informant, his daughter and other family members and injured them and damaged the tractor and other articles by putting on fire. The injury report of informant is mentioned in para 55 and 73 of case diary showing one lacerated wound on left arm which is grievous in nature and injury to the daughter of informant is mentioned in para 74 of case diary showing abrasion and pain which are simple in nature caused by pointed object. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that no gun short injury was found on the person of informant nor any sharp cut injury was found on the person of his daughter as alleged in the FIR. It is further submitted that allegation of assaulting the informant and his daughter are general in nature, further no article related to firing was recovered or seized from the place of occurrence as mentioned in para 4 of case diary. Petitioners are stated to have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 3 of their bail petition. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that the injury to informant is on non-vital part of body, so no case U/s 109 BNS is made out against the petitioners. It is further submitted that the I.O. of the case has not found anything related to firing or burnt articles during inspection of P.O.
7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, these petitioners shall be released on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS. (Dictated)
