1. Heard Sri Diwan Sanaullah Khan, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/petitioner and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioner has stated in para 2 of his bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Denying any such occurrence as alleged was ever taken place, it is submitted on his behalf that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case due to village politics, moreover, the differences cropped up between the parties has now been sorted out and the parties have entered into compromise for which compromise petition has been filed and is on record.
 4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
 5. Heard both the parties and perused the record. It transpires from the perusal of record that Petitioner is FIR named and allegation against him as per FIR are that on dated 14.04.2026 at around 07:00 PM, the informant was standing near Ravidas Temple and at that time a procession was going on and this petitioner assaulted the driver of main procession vehicle with fighter and injured him and when he went to rescue of the driver, this petitioner started abusing him and assaulted him with fighter. It is submitted on behalf of petitioner that no such incident as alleged was occurred and a compromise has arrived between the parties with intervention of well-wishers of both sides and a copy of compromise agreement is also filed on record. Further the informant is present in court and stated that he has no grievance left against the petitioner and he has no objection if the bail petition is considered. Petitioner is stated to have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 03 of his bail petition.

6. Considering the aforesaid fact and circumstances of the case, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of his arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this petitioner shall be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS.
