FIR No: 01/2026
P.S : Adhaura
U/s: 103(1), 3(5) BNS
In J.C: 15.01.2026.
Date Of Order: 07.05.2026

1. Heard Sri Vinod Kumar, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/ petitioner and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioner has stated in para 2 of his bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Alleging false implication of the petitioner, it is submitted on his behalf that the petitioner is the husband of the deceased and the petitioner and deceased have solemnized love marriage and were living happily and due to their love relation, the informant and her family members were annoyed and tortured the deceased in various ways due to which the deceased bolting herself within her room committed suicide and the informant being annoyed with the petitioner, has falsely implicated him, moreover, none has claimed to have seen the petitioner committing the actual murder of the deceased and there is no other circumstantial evidence to connect the petitioner with the commission of alleged murder.
 4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for granting bail to the petitioner.
 5. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioner is FIR named and in judicial custody since 15.01.2026. Allegations against him as per FIR are that, this petitioner has taken away the daughter of informant in the month of June 2025. After 6 months, they return back to the village and on dated 09.01.2026, a Panchayati was called and the family members of this petitioner brought the daughter of informant to Panchayati and, thereafter, the Mukhiya of the village took signature of her daughter on papers and thereafter, they took her back to their house. On dated 12.01.2026 at around 04:00 PM, she came to know that her daughter was killed by this petitioner along with his family members. Charge sheet against him has already been filed. The post mortem report of the deceased aged about 23 years attached with case diary showing blackish discoloration present on posterior aspect of neck extending to bilateral sides of neck. Small laceration present on mandibular bone region measuring approximately 2x0.5 cm, and the cause of death is due to cardio respiratory failure. It transpires from the perusal of case diary that the deceased girl was in love relationship with this petitioner and solemnized marriage with him but the marriage was not socialized and the deceased girl was living with this petitioner at his house and on the date of occurrence she has committed suicide by hanging herself. It is submitted on behalf of petitioner that he and the deceased has solemnized marriage without the consent of their family members and after sometimes, they return back and were living together and for some domestic issue, the deceased girl has committed suicide. It is further submitted that from the perusal of post mortem report it is clear that the deceased girl has committed suicide by hanging herself in side her room. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 3 of this bail petition.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances and that charge sheet against this petitioner has already been filed and he is in judicial custody for more that three and half months, his bail petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties with like amount each to the satisfaction of the trial court.
