Date Of Order:20.05.2026

1. Heard Sri Baliram Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/petitioners and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. Alleging false implication of the petitioners, it is submitted on behalf of the petitioners that this case is the outcome of quarrel took place between the children of both families during play, however, good senses have now been prevailed between the parties and the parties have compromised the case for which compromise petition has been filed and which is on record.
 4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of this petitioners.
 5. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioners are FIR named and allegations against them as per FIR are that on 02.03.2026 while Vikash Kumar, nephew of the informant in course of play accidentally got the food carried by the son of Devlal Singh fallen and being annoyed with it Devlal Singh beaten the nephew of informant and the petitioners hurled abuses to the brother of the informant. It is further alleged that due to such occurrence, the petitioners on 03.03.2026 at around 8 O'clock, beaten the brother of the informant and when the informant and his another brother Parikha Singh went to his rescue, they have also been beaten and petitioner no. 2 assaulted Vijay Singh on his head due to which Vijay Singh fell down and became unconscious. It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that the petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case due to annoyance for quarrel that took place between the children of the both parties and both the family members, however with the intervention of well wishers of both the sides, the parties have sorted out their differences and compromised the case for which compromise petition has been filed which is on record. The informant and injured both are present in court and stated that they have voluntarily compromised the case and filed compromised petition and the injured persons have been discharged from the hospital after treatment.

6. Considering the aforesaid fact and circumstances, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, these petitioners shall be released on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of trial court, subject to conditions as laid down u/s 482 of the BNSS. (Dictated)
