In J.C: 02.05.2026
Date Of Order: 16.05.2026

1. Heard Sri Rupesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/ petitioner and Sh. Sachidanand Rai, learned P.P. for State.
 2. Petitioner has stated in para 2 of his bail petition that no other bail petition, either anticipatory or regular has been filed/pending except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
 3. The case of prosecution is that on dated 06.03.2026 at around 06:00 AM, the minor daughter of informant went out side the house for grazing of her buffalo, in the meantime, this petitioner standing near a Jamun tree started abusing and beating her and when informant heard her cries, she went to the place of occurrence and this petitioner also misbehaved with her and at around 08:00 PM on the same day, this petitioner forcibly entered the house of informant and poured hot fish curry on them and due to this reason both the legs her daughter were burnt.
 4. It is submitted on behalf of petitioner that he is innocent, has not committed any offence and has been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that informant is the wife of cousin brother of petitioner and no such incident as alleged was occurred. It is further submitted that on the date of occurrence, the mother-in-law of informant was grazing buffalo in the field of this petitioner in which vegetable plants were damaged and when petitioner forbade her, an altercation took place and the informant and her daughter has not got any injury as alleged. It is therefore, prayed that his bail petition may be allowed.

5. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for granting bail to the petitioner.
6. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the persual of record that petitioner is FIR named and in judicial custody 02.05.2026. Allegations against him are that he has misbehaved and beaten the informant and her minor daughter and thrown boiled vegetable curry on them due to which daughter of informant received burnt injury. The injury report of both the injured are attached with case diary showing superficial burn over left elbow of the minor daughter of informant and superficial burn over left foot of the informant which are simple in nature caused by hot liquid. Petitioner has criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 17 of case diary, one more case against him is pending in which he is stated to be on bail. It is submitted on behalf of petitioner that a quarrel was occurred between the parties regarding grazing of buffalo in the agriculture field of petitioner and the hot dish fell down on the foot of informant during the scuffle which was unintentional. It is further submitted that from the nature of accusation read with injury report, no case U/s 109 BNS is made out against this petitioner.
7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances coupled with period of custody undergone, this bail petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties with like amount each to the satisfaction of the trial court. (Dictated)
