U/s: 126(2), 115(2), 109, 74,
76, 351(2), 352, 3(5) BNS

Date of Order: 15.06.2026

1. Heard Sh. Ajit Kumar, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the accused/petitioners and Ms. Kumari Saroj Tiwari, learned P.P. for State and Sri Ghanshyam Kumar for the informant.
2. Petitioners have stated in para 2 of their bail petition that they have not filed any bail petition, either anticipatory or regular except this, either in this court or before Hon'ble High Court at Patna.
3. Alleging false implication of the petitioners, it is submitted on their behalf that both the parties are co-villagers and this case is the outcome of differences cropped up between the parties, the altercation had taken place between the children of both the parties during playing of game and due to this reason this case has been filed. However, there is no specific allegation against the petitioners and the allegations are false and concocted, the allegations of misbehave with the Dilkash Khatoon is false and concocted thus, it is submitted that no case U/Ss. 74, 76 of the BNS is made out against the petitioners and no case under section 109 of the BNS is made against the accused/petitioners, no deadly weapons as alleged has been used. Petitioner Nos. 04, 05, 08, 09 have more cases and and rest petitioners have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 40 of case diary in which they are stated to be on bail. Therefore, they prayed that this anticipatory bail petition may be allowed.
4. Learned PP has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
5. Heard the arguments of both the parties and perused the case record. It transpires from the perusal of record that petitioners are named in the FIR and allegations against them as per FIR are that on dated 10.05.2026 at around 09:30 AM, while one Dilkash Khatoon was proceeding towards the Majar, the accused/petitioners intercepted her on the way and with malicious intention, started misbehaving and outraging her modesty. After hearing her noise, the informant reached the place of occurrence to rescue her, whereupon the accused persons, in furtherance of their common intention and came having with lathi, hockey, sword, iron rod, knife and assaulted the informant and the victim and injured them. Thereafter, the accused persons attempted to drag away the victim with ill intention. However, upon intervention of local villagers, the victim was rescued. Petitioner Nos. 04, 05, 08, 09 have more cases and and rest petitioners have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 40 of case diary in which they are stated to be on bail. It is submitted that petitioners and informant are co-villagers and the altercation had taken place between the children of both the parties during playing game. All sections involved in this case are bailable except sections 74, 76 and 109 of the BNS and Sections 74 and 76 of the BNS is not made out against the petitioners as there is no intention to outrage her modesty. In so far as Section 109 of the BNS is concerned it is mentioned that there is no specific allegation against the accused persons and the injury is simple in nature caused by hard and blunt object and there is no repeated blow.
6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and in the event of their arrest or surrender before the trial court within three
