Arising out of Chand P.S Case No.-245 of 2026
U/s-115(2), 126(2),109 (1), 118(2), 191(2), 74, 352 of BNS.

Bahadur Paswan..... Petitioner
Vs
State of Bihar

Appearance: Sri Dina Nath Singh Jee, Ld. Addl. P.P. for the State.
Sri Ghanshyam Ram, Ld. Counsel for Petitioner

20.07.2026

This bail petition is filed by petitioner namely, Bahadur Paswan who is in judicial custody since 24.06.2026 in connection with Chand P.S Case No.-245 of 2026 registered u/s-115(2), 126(2),109(1), 118(2), 191(2), 74, 352 of BNS pending in the court of Smt. Pratima Kumari Id. J.M.F.C, Kaimur at Bhabua.

As per the prosecution case, in brief, that on 23.06.2026 about 7:00 a.m. informant was preparing food in the meantime accused Bahadur Paswan and other accused persons came to her house and started pulling her by holding her hand. Informant pretested then all accused persons beating informant and her family members with iron rod.

Learned counsel on behalf of the petitioner submit that prior to this petition petitioner has not filed any other application for grant of anticipatory bail either before Hon'ble High Court, Patna or before Id. Principal District & Sessions Judge, Kaimur. Petitioner has one criminal antecedent. Petitioner is quite innocent and he has committed no offence at all. Petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. There is case and counter case in between the parties. All sections areailable save and except 118(2), 109 (1) and 74 of the BNS. Petitioner is in judicial custody since 24.06.2026. Hence, petitioner may be admitted on bail.

Ld. APP on behalf of the state opposes the bail petition and submits that the petitioner does not deserve to be admitted on bail.

Heard both the parties. The informant has instituted FIR u/s-115(2), 126(2),109 (1), 118(2), 191(2), 74, 352 of BNS against petitioner in which only section 118 (2), 109

(1) and 74 of the BNS is non-bailable. As regards section 109(1) is concerned, it is mentioned that the injury reports shows that all the injuries are simple in nature and not repeated or caused on the vital parts of body. As regards section 74 of the BNS, the offence does not attract as there is no intention to outrage the modesty of the women instead of there is a free fight. There is case and counter case in between the parties. Petitioner is in judicial custody since 18.06.2026.

Hence, keeping in view above facts as well as the period of custody, I am inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Therefore, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- each alongwith two sureties of the like amount subject to satisfaction of the Smt. Pratima Kumari Id. J.M.F.C, Kaimur at Bhabua.

Let the copy of this order be sent to Id. Trial Court.
