

IN THE COURT OF ADDITIONAL CHIEF JUDICIAL MAGISTRATE-II, MOHANIA AT KAIMUR

Kanchan Devi vs. Dharmendra Thakur & Ors.

Complaint Case No. 230/2024

| Date of order                  | Order with initial of the magistrate                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Remark |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| 21.06.2025                     | The complainant is present. This record is fixed today for hearing and order on the point of summoning after the completion of the inquiry. Upon perusal of the record, it appears that this complaint case has been filed by Kanchan Devi (hereinafter referred to as the 'complainant') against the following accused persons:- 1. Dharmendra Thakur (aged 38 years), 2. Jitendra Thakur (aged 44 years), 3. Upendra Thakur (aged 42 years), 4. Deepak Thakur (aged 36 years), 5. Govind Thakur (aged 33 years), 6. Rameshwar Thakur (aged 65 years), 7. Chandrakanti Devi (aged 63 years), 8. Sunita Devi (aged 42 years), 9. Maya Devi (aged 40 years), 10. Gudiya Devi (aged 33 years), 11. Radha Devi (aged 32 years), 12. Raja Thakur (aged 23 years), and 13. Manisha Kumari (aged 22 years). The complaint was filed u/ss 498-A, 406, 506, 325, 120-B of the IPC and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act. The Ld. ACJM-I, Mohania, took cognizance of the case and transferred the record u/s 192(1) of the Cr.P.C. to this court for further inquiry. |               |
| Continue21.06.2025 | During the course of the inquiry, the complainant was examined on oath u/s 200 Cr.P.C. She also adduced one inquiry witness who was examined on oath u/s 202 Cr.P.C. Having carefully perused the complaint petition, the sworn statement of the complainant, and the statements of the inquiry witnesses, it appears that the inquiry witnesses have supported the complainant's case. After a thorough perusal of all the material present on                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |               | record and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court finds that there is sufficient material to make out a prima facie case u/s 498-A of the IPC and Sections 3/4 of the D.P. Act against accused Dharmendra Thakur.

Thus, so far as other accused persons noted above are concerned, this court does not find any prima facie case against them, thus proceedings against them are hereby dropped. So far as other sections are concerned this court this court does not find any prima facie case under those sections.

The complainant is directed to file the necessary requisites within 15 days from the date of this order. The office clerk is directed to issue process accordingly against accused Dharmendra Thakur after the filing of said requisites.

Put up on _____ for filling of requisites.

A.C.J.M-II
Mohania, Kaimur

Since cognizance has been taken u/s 3/4 of D.P. Act and this Act is exclusively triable by the Court of Ld. SDJM, Mohania. Hence, O/C is directed to transfer this record to Court of SDJM, Mohania.

A.C.J.M-II
Mohania, Kaimur