C.A. Case No. 1557/2024

U/S- 85, 3 (5) of B.N.S. and Section 4 of D.P. Act

Ld. Advocate for petitioner- Nageshwar Kumar Sah

Ld. A.P.P. for the State- Shri Md. Azaj Alam

ORDER

09.04.2026- This anticipatory bail petition has been filed on behalf of accused-petitioner namely Ashok Das who is apprehending his arrest in connection with aforesaid case.

Heard the Ld. counsel Nageshwar Kumar Sah appearing on behalf of the petitioner and Ld. A.P.P. Shri Md. Azaj Alam on behalf of the state.

According to complaint petition prosecution case in nutshell is that marriage of Complainant namely Vandana Kumari was solemnised with accused-petitioner namely Ashok Das on 19.02.2022 as per Hindu rites and rituals. At the time of marriage parents and other relatives gave ornaments, motor-cycle and other house-hold articles to the Complainant. After marriage, Complainant went her in-law's house and with wedlock of her husband she gave birth of one female child. It is alleged that after one year accused-petitioner and other accused started demanding Rs. 2,00,000/-, 2 bhar gold in the shape of dowry and when Complainant show her inability to satisfy the said demand then accused persons committed physical and mental torture to the Complainant and they also not provided food to the Complainant. It is further alleged that lastly on 30.06.2024 accused persons brutally assaulted to the Complainant and she was treated at P.H.C. Dalkolha. It is further alleged that accused persons ousted to the Complainant from matrimonial house.

On the other side learned counsel for the petitioner has reiterated all the grounds taken in the bail petition and has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence and allegation as levelled against the petitioner is false and fabricated. Further there is no direct or indirect allegation for said offence and petitioner never ousted to the Complainant and he also never demanded Rs. 2,00,000/- cash in dowry. Further having gone into favour of her parents Complainant filed this false case.

Per contra, Learned A.P.P. has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Heard both the parties and perused the case record. From perusal of the case record it is evident that, Complainant has neither levelled any specific allegation in complaint petition nor in her S.A. against the petitioner. Further there is medical slip on record but same is not legible. Moreover it prima facie appears that due to strained relation in between Complainant and petitioner this case has been brought into existence.

So having considered the above facts and submissions made by the Ld. Counsel for the petitioner, the instant anticipatory bail petition is hereby allowed and accordingly it is ordered to release the petitioner namely Ashok Das on bail in the case of surrender/arrest within three weeks of this order on furnishing of bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court concerned subject to the condition as mentioned in the section 482 (2) of B.N.S.S.
