

IN THE COURT OF SUB JUDGE-IV, MADHUBANI

T.S.- 51/2026

Amruddin AnsariPlaintiff

v/s

Serajuddin AnsariDefendants

ORDER

16-04-2026 Both the parties are in attendance through their respective counsel. This record has been put for order on joint compromise petition dated 13-03-2026 filed on behalf of both the parties.

Pressing the petition learned counsel of plaintiff as well as defendant have jointly submitted that they have entered into the compromise outside the court with the intervention of their well wishers and do not want to continue with the litigation. It has also been submitted that the joint compromise petition duly signed by the both the parties to the suit and identified by their respective learned counsel is on record. It has also been submitted that parties to the suit have also come into the possession of the property as per compromise. It has further been submitted that now both the parties do not wish to continue with the litigation and as such compromise be accepted and case be disposed off.

Heard the submission and went through the material available on the record. It transpires that the plaintiff and defendants have compromised the case and the compromise petition duly signed by both the plaintiff and defendants and also duly identified by their respective learned counsels is on the record. It further transpires that the plaintiff and defendants have also been examined on oath on the point of compromise before the court and they have supported the factum of compromise. The parties have stated that they have entered into compromise voluntarily and without any force, fear or fraud. It also transpires that as per the report of Seristedar the compromise petition is in order. Since the parties to the suit have compromised the case and do not wish to continue with the case then the court does not find any reason not to accept the compromise petition. Hence the compromise petition dated 13-03-2026 is hereby accepted as per area in accordance with documents on record. The compromise petition shall form the part of the decree.

O/C is directed to prepare decree sheet in terms of compromise and deposit the record in record room as per rule.

Sub-Judge-IV
Madhubani

IN THE COURT OF SUB JUDGE-VII, MADHUBANI

P.S.- 51/2024

Shahabuddin AnsariPlaintiff

v/s

Md. Reyazuddin ors.....Defendants

ORDER

23-07-2024

Both the parties are in attendance through their respective counsel. This record has been put for order on joint compromise petition dated 08.05.24 filed on behalf of both the parties.

Pressing the petition learned counsel of plaintiff as well as defendant have jointly submitted that they have entered into the compromise outside the court with the intervention of their well wishers and do not want to continue with the litigation. It has also been submitted that the joint compromise petition duly signed by the both the parties to the suit and identified by their respective learned counsel is on record. It has also been submitted that parties to the suit have also come into the possession of the property as per compromise. It has further been submitted that now both the parties do not wish to continue with the litigation and as such compromise be accepted and case be disposed off.

Heard the submission and went through the material available on the record. It transpires that the plaintiff and defendants have compromise the case and the compromise petition duly signed by both the plaintiff and defendants and also duly identified by their respective learned counsels is on the record. It further transpires that the plaintiff witnesses I.e PW 1 - Shahabuddin Ansari who is also the plaintiff of this case, PW- 2 Shafiudin & PW-3 Shekhawtullah and defendants witnesses I.e DW-1 Md. Reyazuddin, DW-2 Md. Rahmat & DW-3 Najda khatoon have also been examined on oath on the point of compromise before the court and they have supported the factum of compromise. The parties have stated that they have entered into compromise voluntarily and without any force, fear or fraud. It also transpires that as per the report of Seristedar Dt. 10.05.24 the compromise petition is in order. Since the parties to the suit have compromised the case and do not wish to continue with the case then the court does not find any reason not to accept the compromise petition. Hence the compromise petition dated 08.05.24 is hereby accepted as per area in accordance with documents on record. The compromise petition shall form the part of the decree.

O/C is directed to prepare decree sheet in terms of compromise and deposit the record in record room as per rule.

(Swati Surendra)
Succ. Sub-Judge-VII