This regular bail petition has been filed under section 483 B.N.S.S. on behalf of the petitioners 1. Ramashish Sah & 2. Vishwanath Sah, who are in custody since 06.04.2026 in connection with Laukahi P.S Case No. 20/2026 U/s- 191(2), 191(3), 115(2), 126(2), 118(1) 121(1), 121(2), 132, 324(4), 352, 351(2), which is pending in the court of Sri. N. Kamran, J.M.F.C, Jhanjharpur, is being pressed and heard.

The case of the prosecution in nutshell is that on 13.02.2026 at about 14:15, informant along with police official, went to accused house namely Prakash. He saw three persons were standing near Prakash's house, and after seeing the police one person ran away towards the house. Chaukidar confirmed that, the fled man was Prakash Sah. When police official tried to enter the house, then other two persons started misbehaving, and abusing. Accused namely Umesh Sah grabbed the collar of the informant, and started pulling him. Then with the help of other police officials Prakash Sah and Umesh Sah were caught. After that villagers started obstructing in the work of police officials whose name were verified by the Chaukidar, and named in F.I.R. With the help of that villagers Prakash Sah managed to escape from there. In the meantime accused namely Vishwanath Sah, Sujit Kumar, and Radhe Kumar, started stone pelting on the police vehicle, and police officials. After that police official caught Sujit Kumar and Radhe Kumar. Then official got information that Vishwanath Sah and Umesh sah, were seen in Laukahi. Then police reached there, and caught Umesh Sah. Vishwanath Sah managed to escape from there. Hence, this case.

Learned counsel for the accused petitioners submits that the accused petitioners are innocent, and have not committed any offence. They have no criminal antecedent. That no any regular, or anticipatory bail petition has been filed on behalf of the petitioners before your Hon'ble Court, or Hon'ble Patna High Court, Patna. The petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case out of previous grudge, malice, spite, and also due to local dirty village party politics. That the petitioners were not involved in this occurrence. That the petitioners are under judicial custody since 06.04.2026, and sufficiently been punished. Accordingly, it has been prayed to grant bail to the accused petitioners.

The learned APP had opposed the prayer for bail.

Heard the argument, and perused the case diary. Petitioners do not bear any criminal antecedent. Petitioners are in custody since 06.04.26, which is more than one month. Injury sustained by injured are simple in nature. Moreover, I.O has failed to take statement of chowkidar, who had identified the accused. Considering the fact that petitioners do not bear any criminal antecedent, and period of custody undergone, the regular bail petition of petitioners namely Ramashish Sah & Vishwanath Sah are allowed. They are directed to be released from custody on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of Ld. Court concerned.
