ORDER

Dated: 19.05.2026

This regular bail petition has been filed under section 483 B.N.S.S. on behalf of the petitioner Md. Nemat @ Nemutullah who has been arrested in connection with Laukaha PS Case No.67/2026, GR No.627/2026 under section 303(2), 318(4), 319(2), 3(5) of the B.N.S. which is pending in the court of S.D.J.M., Jhanjharpur, is being pressed and heard.

The prosecution case in brief, on the basis of fardbyan of informant Md. Asgar Ali is that on 23.03.2026, he was sleeping in his workshop opposite the Laukaha Bus Stand. On 23.03.2026 at around 12:15 AM, Mohammad Hussain, Md. Afroj, Md. Nemat came to his workshop. They broke the shutters, and entered inside. They took his ATM card, knife, a Redmi 5G mobile phone, Rs. 3,000/- cash, and a diary related to the workshop hanging on a peg. The three persons fled away. In the morning, he went to the workshop, and checked, he found all the above mentioned items and money missing. After that he went to State Bank, Laukaha, during bank hours, and checked his account then he found 28,500/- has been transferred from his account in several installments by Md. Hussain to his account through his Paytm number 0097690162095.

Learned counsel for the accused petitioner submits that the accused petitioner is innocent, and has not committed any offence. He has no criminal antecedent. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case out of grudge, malice, and dirty village party politics. The prosecution story as alleged is entirely false, and concocted. The petitioner has not at all concern with the alleged occurrence. Nothing incriminating article has recovered from the possession of the petitioner. No case under the alleged section is made out in this case under the facts and circumstances of the case. The petitioner leads poor life, depends only on labouring, and after the death of his parents, there is none to look him. The co-accused Md. Afroj has been granted bail by this court vide BP No. 215/2026, dated 09.04.2026. The petitioner is in judicial custody since 24.03.2026, and accordingly it has been prayed to grant bail to the accused petitioner.

The learned APP had opposed the prayer for bail.

Heard the argument and perused the case diary. From para-13 of case diary it is apparent that petitioner along with co accused Md. Hussain, were caught with stolen goods. Petitioner had admitted his guilt before the police. Investigation against petitioner is still undergoing. Considering these facts, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Hence, regular bail petition of the petitioner Md. Nemat is hereby rejected.

However, petitioner can renew his prayer for bail after framing of charge.
