ORDER

Dated: 05.06.2026

This anticipatory bail petition filed on behalf of the above named petitioner Aditya Kumar Singh, who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Andhramath P.S. Case No. 7/2025, for the offence under section 115(2), 329(3), 74, 75, 118(1), 110, 351, 352 of BNS, which is pending in the court of SDJM, Jhanjharpur, is being pressed and heard.

The case of the prosecution in nutshell, on the basis of written application of the informant Vimla Devi is that, on 10.01.2025 at 7:30 PM, the petitioner accused forcibly entered her house. Petitioner started molesting her by misbehaving. When she protested, he started beating her, tore her clothes, and snatched a silver chain worth Rs. 8000/- from her neck. Then her brother-in-law Vipat Kumar @ Ramchandra went to save her. On hearing the noise, all the members of Rupesh's family including Ankit, Rupesh Singh, Anand Singh armed with sticks and iron rod, with the intention of killing her brother-in-law, Aditya and Anand hit her on the head with sticks and iron rod, due to which she bled badly and also became unconscious after getting injured. While leaving, they also threatened to kill. Hence, this case.

Learned counsel for the accused petitioner submitted that the petitioner is quite innocent, and has not committed any offence. The prosecution story is false and concocted. The petitioner is a student and preparing Govt. Service Examination. The charge sheet has submitted by I.O. and cognizance has also been taken. There is no criminal antecedent against the petitioner. Accordingly, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the accused petitioner.

Learned APP had opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail.

Heard the argument, and perused the case diary. Petitioner do not bear any criminal antecedent. As per injury report, injury sustained by injured are simple in nature, caused by hard and blunt substance. Petitioner on notice by police had surrendered before police, and had duly complied the provision u/s 35(3) of BNSS. Petitioner is a student. Considering the aforesaid facts as well as discussion made above, the Anticipatory Bail Petition of the petitioner accused namely Aditya Kumar Singh is hereby allowed. It is hereby ordered that in the event of surrender or arrest before the court below/concerned police within 30 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, the petitioner shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below/police subject to the condition under the provision of section 482(2) BNSS.
