

IN THE COURT OF PRINCIPAL JUDGE
FAMILY COURT, MUNGER

MISCELLANEOUS CASE NO. 24 OF 2021

Sonam Kumari Vrs. Amit Kumar

08.06.2026 A Waqalatan hazri has been filed on behalf of the petitioner. Respondent is absent.

The present Miscellaneous case has been filed by wife against her husband for enforcement of maintenance order dated 12.03.2021 passed in Maintenance case no. 110 of 2019.

Case called out. Learned counsel for the petitioner appeared before the Court. Heard him on the point of payment of arrears and regular amount of maintenance amount.

On perusal of case record, earlier, petitioner had been directed to clarify the position of deduction of arrears within seven days. Learned counsel for the Opposite-party submitted that as per order dated 24.06.2024, the 1/3rd amount of monthly salary of respondent is being deducted and deposited in the bank account of petitioner. He has submitted that petitioner is satisfied with the proceedings of this case and has no objection if the case is disposed off on merits, as there is no use to proceed with the same.

The petitioner shall be at liberty to file a fresh execution petition for recovery of any subsequent arrears of maintenance, if so advised, in accordance with law and subject to limitation, including the restriction contained in Section 125(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the present Miscellaneous case is disposed of as satisfied on merits.

Dictated,

(ARVIND KUMAR SHARMA)
