

Misc. Civil Appeal-07/2005O R D E R*Dated-19.06.2026

Case called out. The appellant side is absent even today. The Respondent State of Bihar files attendance. From perusal of record, it transpires that this Misc. Civil Appeal is pending since the year 2005 and as such, the appeal is very old one. It further appears that the appellant side has left pairvi in this appeal since long ago. It further transpires that on dated 17.03.2026, last chance was given to the appellant for doing proper pairvi in this appeal. But despite of several directions, the appellant side is absent from the proceedings of this appeal since last several dates. Earlier, on dated 17.12.2019, also, this appeal was dismissed due to default of the appellant (which was restored later on). It appears that the appellant side lost interest in pursuing the matter further. This Misc. Appeal is accordingly dismissed for non-prosecution.
